The Public Representative hereby provides comments pursuant to Order No. 2059.¹ In that Order, the Commission established the above referenced docket to receive comments from interested persons, including the undersigned Public Representative, on a Postal Service Request to add Priority Mail Contract 81 to the competitive product list.² The Postal Service's Request includes a Statement of Supporting Justification, a certification of compliance with 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a), a copy of Governors' Decision No. 11-6 and proposed changes to the Mail Classification Schedule competitive product list. ¹ Notice and Order Concerning the Addition of Priority Mail Contract 81 to the Competitive Product List, April 21, 2014 (Order No. 2059).

According to the Postal Service, Priority Mail Contract 81 is a competitive product “not of general applicability” within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. § 3632(b)(3). Request at 1. The Postal Service also maintains that the prices and classification underlying the instant contract are supported by Governors’ Decision No. 11-6.³

COMMENTS

The Public Representative has reviewed the instant contract, the Statement of Supporting Justification, as well as the financial data and the model filed under seal that accompanies the Postal Service’s Request.

Product List Assignment. Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. § 3642, the Postal Service requests that Priority Mail Contract 81 be added to the competitive product list. 39 U.S.C. § 3642 requires the Commission to consider whether “the Postal Service exercises sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of such product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products.” 39 U.S.C. § 3642(b)(1). Products over which the Postal Service exercises such power are categorized as market dominant while all others are categorized as competitive.

The Postal Service makes a number of assertions that address the considerations of section 3642(b)(1). Request, Attachment D at 2. These assertions appear reasonable. Based upon these assertions, the Public Representative concludes that the Postal Service’s Request to add Priority Mail Contract 81 to the competitive product list is appropriate.

Requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3633. Pursuant to 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a), the Postal Service’s rates for competitive products must not result in the subsidization of competitive products by market dominant products; ensure that each competitive product will cover its attributable costs; and, ensure that all competitive products collectively contribute an appropriate share of the institutional costs of the Postal Service. Based upon a review of the financial model filed under seal with the Postal Service's Request, it appears that the negotiated prices in the instant contract should generate sufficient revenues to cover costs during its first year and therefore meet the requirements of 39 U.S.C. 3633(a) during its first year. The mechanism for the annual adjustment of prices (see, Request, Attachment B at 6) should help maintain the contract's ability to meet the requirements of 39 U.S.C. 3633(a) over the lifetime of the contract. The Public Representative is mindful that the Postal Service will file cost, revenue and volume data in each year's Annual Compliance Report. That will aid the Commission in ensuring that the Priority Mail Contract 81 continues to comply with the requirements of 39 U.S.C. § 3633(a).

The Public Representative respectfully submits the foregoing comments for the Commission's consideration.
